Celebrating 75 Years

Kingston And District Poultry And Pet Stock Association

The Kingston and District Poultry and Pet Stock Assoc. celebrates its 75th anniversary this year. Club secretary Vince Pople tells us plans are being finalized for their annual spring show. Walter Christmas, president of the Kingston club, along with committee members Heinz Merz, Dan Rickards, Allan Benn and Reg Watson look forward to seeing you on Sunday June 16th at the Odessa fairgrounds to help celebrate this special occasion.

This years show will have classes for Standard and Bantam fowl, Waterfowl and Pigeons. In addition to the senior show, classes are available for junior exhibitors. All birds must be cooped by 9:30 a.m. and judging will begin at 10:00 a.m. Cliff Pepper of Dashwood will be judging the poultry and waterfowl entries while Frank Goodfellow of Parham will be placing the pigeon classes.

Entry fees will be $.50 per bird and entries will be accepted until the 14th of June. Mail in entries should be sent earlier to ensure they are received.

Plaques will be awarded to the Champions in each division. Last years show attracted over 400 entries from local exhibitors. Entries for this show should be sent to: Vince Pople, R.R.2, Perth Road, Ont. K0H 2L0. For further information, contact Vince at (613) 353-7654.
