

Kingston Spring Show: 1- Champion Largefowl, black Australorp hen by Reg Watson; 2- Best Opposite Sex Largefowl, light Brahma cock by Reg Watson; 3- Champion Bantam, B.B. Red O.E. Game hen by Walt Christmas; 4- Best Opposite Sex Bantam, white Rock cockerel by Frank Goodfellow. (Photos by the Review)

Kingston And District Poultry & Pet Stock Association

Annual Show

BY FRANK GOODFELLOW

On June 16th, the Kingston and District club held its annual show at the Odessa Fairgrounds, Odessa, Ontario. Cliff Pepper of Dashwood, Ontario placed the Poultry and Waterfowl, while I judged the Pigeon classes.

Thirteen exhibitors showed 275 entries at this spring show. Champion Largefowl was a black Australorp hen for Reg Watson, Reg also had the Best Opposite Sex Largefowl with a light Brahma cock. Best of Breeds are as follows: Heinz Merz had the best Brahma with a dark hen and the best Welsummer with a hen. Reg Watson had the best Cochin on a black hen, best Rock with a white cock and best Australorp with the black hen. Bill Bracken had the best Rhode Island Red on a hen, best Orpington with a buff hen, and best Hamburg with a silver spangled hen. Best Wyandotte was shown by Alan Benn, a white cock. Vince Pople had the best Cornish on a white cock and Del Gibson had the best O.E. Game with his B.B.

Red cock. Frank Goodfellow had the best Leghorn with a S.C. white hen.

A total of 137 bantams were shown, O.E. Games being the largest class with 35, mostly black reds, 14 cocks and 13 hens. Champion Bantam was a black red O.E. Game hen shown by Walt Christmas. Best Opposite Sex Bantam was a white Plymouth Rock cockerel shown by Frank Goodfellow. Reg Watson had the best Rosecomb on a black hen, best Wyandotte with a white hen and best Mille Fleur with a hen. A buff hen was the best Brahma for Heinz Merz. Alan Benn had the best Cochin with a black hen, best Leghorn with a dark brown cock and best Cornish on a white laced red hen. Bill Bracken had the best Sebright with a silver cock and best R.I. Red on a cock. Frank Goodfellow had the best Rock on a white cockerel and Vince Pople the top Modern on a silver duckwing cock. Walt Christmas had the best O.E. Game with his black red hen.

Champion Waterfowl was a white Call drake shown by Reg Watson and Best Opposite Sex was an African goose, an entry of Vince Pople.

In the Junior Division, it was a black Australorp cock by Dana Pople winning Best Standard. Best Opposite Sex was a black Australorp hen by Mitchell Austin. Mitchell also had the Best and Best Opposite Sex Jr. Bantam on a black red O.E. Game hen and a black O.E. Game cock respectively.

Pigeon classes consisted of 61 birds in 14 breeds. Bill Harrison had the Champion Pigeon on a black L.F.C.L. Tumbler hen. Reserve Champ. was a grizzle Dragoon hen for Robby Copeland. Robby also had the Best Opposite Sex Pigeon of show with his blue Fantail cock. Best Junior Pigeon of the show was a blue bar Chinese Owl hen shown by Cassandra Bracken. Dana Pople captured the Best Opposite Sex with a blue bar Chinese Owl cock.

Congratulations to the Kingston Club.

